Jill Pannell (Co-opted)
Jack Owen (Co-opted)

The Secretary, Betty Young, is a paid employee, who is not a Trustee.

5. Activities during the Year

The amount of the winter fuel grant this year was unchanged this year at £250 per household for all eligible applications. Qualifying income levels were also unchanged at £275 (single) and £350 (couple). In total, 17 grants were made and a total of £4250 was given out. The George Day fund grant was also unchanged at £600, but was not requested by Burham Primary School this year. There were no other grants paid out during this year to residents for the relief of financial hardship.

Betty Young continued as Secretary to the Charity, and the Trustees thanked her for the good work. All meetings were held virtually via zoom because of the covid situation.
